

The Annual IHI-HIP Student Symposium: Racism in Healthcare

Thursday, February 18, 2021

Watch Recording

Click the links below to view presentation slides from the symposium

Crystal Mack, RN, BSN, SRNA

Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing

Topic: The Link Between Healthcare Providers and Health Disparities in the African American Population: The Need for Training and Education

Click here to view slides

Alice Chen

Rollins School of Public Health

Topic: Racial Disparities in Infant Health in Central Texas, 1970-2013

Click here to view slides

Gabrielle Metoyer

Rollins School of Public Health

Topic: Patient Race and Physician Performance

Click here to view slides

Shakti Shetty

Rollins School of Public Health

Topic: A Pandemic in the Digital Age: How Social media Reports Medical Racism in Real Time

Click here to view slides

Lul Mohamud

Rollins School of Public Health

Topic: A Pandemic in the Digital Age: How Social media Reports Medical Racism in Real Time

Click here to view slides

Sabreen Mohammed

Rollins School of Public Health

Topic: A Pandemic in the Digital Age: How Social media Reports Medical Racism in Real Time

Click here to view slides

EMORY
UNIVERSITY

Healthcare
Innovation Program

Emory University